ton after he had made a personal to-In consequence Harry Lancaster, a chauffeur employed by Harry Kilbern, an automobile dealer, who was charged with running his automobile twenty-two miles an hour between Broadway, was discharged.

The trial of Lancaster this morning brought out that many arrests had been made by policemen standing at Seventy-ninth street and Broadway and timing autors biles coming down Broadway as they were passing from Eightyfirst to Eightleth street. This particular "trap" has attracted the attention of the Automobile Club of America and that organization stood behind Lancaster's defense.

It was said that Lancaster's speed meter between Eighty-first street and Kightieth streets registered only six-teen miles an hour. Magistrate Appleon was taken to Seventy-ninth street and Broadway and several tests were made. He decided that the police methed of computing speed of cars at this point was far from accurate, inasmuch as it was impossible to time an autoin the manner the policemen de-

Pactory Law Violators Fined. Chief Justice Russell of the Court of Sessions relieved the calendar Special Sessions relieved the calendar of that court to a great extent to-day by sitting in pleading cases in Part V. About fifty cases came up before him. Twenty-three of these he disposed of and the others were placed on the fined $30 each, with an alternative of four days in Jail, for smoking in fac-tories. One man, Harry Halper, who owns a factory at No. 113 Wooster street, was fined 354 for smoking be-ourse, Justice Russell said, he set a bad example for his employees. Two owners who violated the locked door law were also fined. They were Morris Nagel of No. 32 West Seventeenth street and Charles Teepe of No. 615 First

Here's an Extraordinary Sale of SHOES For Women and Girls

Women's $4 Grades at $1.95

Subway Store Balcony

Girls' $2.50 Grades at $1.50

An event that can never again be duplicated—because GIMBELS PURCHASED THE CHRISTMAS STOCK OF SHOES WHICH WAS ORDERED FROM A HIGH-GRADE MANUFACTURER BY THE LATE FIRM OF MAHLER & COMPANY, SIXTH AVENUE.

The makers of these Shoes have just gone out of businessone of the many reasons of their failing was attributed to the fact that they put a better grade of leather and workmanship into their Shoes than they could afford. We bought this very fine stock from the Receivers and we bought it very, very cheap, so come and be prepared to get one of the best shoe bargains you ever heard of.

As for the quality of these Shoes, it might be in order to remind you that Mahler made a specialty of high grade Shoes Women and Girls, and that they were purchased by an expert in shoes.
